General Data Protection Regulation - comes into effect on 25th May, 2018

The H G Wells Society is very aware of the privacy of the details you give us overleaf when you join our Society. The new General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) law means we have to make sure that you understand that we would never give your information to anyone without your permission.

We keep your details safe and secure and we use this information for the following purposes:

1. To enable us to send you Newsletters, Wellsians, notices about forthcoming meetings, e.g. the AGM and similar things;
2. To enable us to remind you that your membership needs renewing, and if you do not renew, then your details are removed from our database automatically;
3. To inform you of anything else related to H G Wells that we feel you would want to know about, e.g. conferences.

Two Officers of our Society keep a database. The Membership Secretary keeps a full list of the details overleaf to ensure we can carry out the aforementioned duties. The Secretary keeps an electronic list of e-Mail addresses only so that they can also send you information as outlined above.

By paying your membership fee you automatically agree to us using your information as given overleaf for the specified purposes outlined above. Please tick the box below to confirm that you are happy with this. However, if you do wish to be removed from our database at any time in the future please contact either of the Officers below:

Membership Secretary: eric.l.fitch@btopenworld.co.uk

Secretary: secretaryhgwellssociety@hotmail.com

I confirm that I am happy for the Society to use my given information as above.
